

Venue: Concert Hall, Concourse, Chatswood
Saturday 24 August 2019 at 7pm and Sunday 25 August at 2pm

Conductor: Dr Nicholas Milton AM with The Willoughby Symphony Orchestra and Choir

The Willoughby Symphony's ever-popular Last Night of the Proms returns in 2019 as a special event that will be bigger and better than ever before!

Join the cheering crowds for a full afternoon or evening of unbridled enthusiasm as the full Orchestra and Choir are joined by surprise guests in a massive concert celebration of beloved symphonic and choral masterworks.

The programme will feature popular classics such as Elgar's Pomp and Circumstance March (Land of Hope and Glory) and other favourites, with charismatic and dynamic Chief Conductor and Artistic Director, Dr Nicholas Milton leading a thrilling performance.
